

DEMOCRAT PLEADS WITH PROGRESSIVES

Rep. Stringer Urges Third Party Representatives to Support Underwood Bill

READS FROM PLATFORM

Declares Plank in National Platform Pledges Them to Immediate Revision Downward

TARIFF DEBATE IS LIVELY

WASHINGTON, APRIL 26.—Confronting Progressive members of the house with a plank in the national platform of their party pledging them to immediate revision of "excessive tariff schedules" without waiting for their proposed non-partisan tariff committee, Representative Lawrence B. Stringer, a new Democrat from Illinois, called upon the third party representatives in the house tonight to support the Underwood bill if they wished to carry out their party declarations.

First defending the Progressives against onslaughts by both Democrats and Republicans and declaring that they represented more than four million voters and had the right to claim that their party was "the second great party in this nation," the Illinois democrat emphatically denied that they presented a "protection party."

Favor Tariff Commission.
"You tell me that the Progressive party favors a non-partisan tariff commission," declared Mr. Stringer.
"That is true, but that plank in the Progressive platform concludes by saying: 'The work of the commission should not prevent the immediate adoption of acts reducing those schedules generally recognized as excessive.'"

Waving aloft the quotation and addressing himself to Victor Murdock, Progressive party leader, Mr.
Stringer continued:
"I call the attention of the gentleman from Kansas to the statement that if he and the Progressive members of this body who he leads desire to carry out the declarations of their own platform, and I believe they do, they will be compelled by the logic of those declarations to join with us in the passage of this pending measure."

Increase Over Dingley Bill
The day's debate further was enlivened by the first exhibition of feeling between the majority and minority leaders in the tariff discussion when Representative Dixon of Indiana, Democratic member of the ways and means committee attacked the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, declared it was in effect an increase over the former Dingley tariff in that average rate of the Payne law was 1.71 per cent higher than the Dingley law with the statistics of 1907 as a basis.

"The statistics that the ways and means committee present to day show the gentleman's statement is utterly unfounded and false," shouted Representative Payne. Both participants in the colloquy announced they would bring reports of the ways and means committee to prove their contentions.

Discuss Income Tax.
Representative Collier of Mississippi, a majority member of the ways and means committee, arraigned the Republican party. The income tax was the subject of prolonged discussion early in the day. Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee, author of that section explaining it in detail. He was kept on his feet more than two hours, scores of members questioning him on the proposed tax. Clash between Representative Payne of New York, ranking Republican on the ways and means committee and author of the present law, and Representative Murdock of Kansas, over the division of time for speech-making on the minority side of the house chamber, enlivened the otherwise monotonous proceedings late to day.

Representative Kent of California Independent, announced that he wishes to vote for the Democratic bill, but disagreed with many of its provisions.

On Record as Free Traders.
Representative Anderson of Minnesota, Republican said the bill placed the Democrats on record as free traders.

Representative Bailey of Pennsylvania, who announced himself as a free Democrat, declared that while in his opinion the Underwood bill did not go far enough in lowering rates and enlarging the free list, it was a step in the right direction.

pean manufacturers who secure cheap labor.

"Our country is prosperous," he declared. "And times are good.
We to the Democratic tariff makers who change this condition. At present our people are not troubled about the price of the contents of their market basket. They are for the continuance of an opportunity to pay for its contents. Better a full basket at fair prices than an empty one at cut prices."

Criticizes Roosevelt.
Representative Heflin of Alabama Democrat made a humorous attack on the Republican tariff attitude. He injected a good-natured criticism at Theodore Roosevelt and the Progressive party. Representative Chandler of New York for the Progressives will reply Monday.

Representative Bryan of Washington, Progressive asserted the tariff bill was a product of political logrolling, and urged the creation of a non-partisan tariff board.

Representative Manahan of Minnesota, Republican, ridiculed the Democrats for putting flour on the free list and retaining the duty of wheat.

Representative Doolittle of Kansas, Democrat favored the creation of a farmers' loan department.

Representative Hawley of Oregon Republican, urged protection for wool.

Representative Shrive of Pennsylvania, Sinnott of Oregon and others also spoke.

Will Reduce Cost of Living.
Representative Crisp of Georgia, Democrat congratulated the country on the Democratic bill. By every rule of equity and economy, he said, it should reduce the cost of living and remove the burden from the people. He would place all necessities of life on the free list if he could, he said.

Representative Lafferty of Oregon a Progressive the fifth member of that party to speak to day, attacked the manner in which the Underwood bill was prepared.

"It was written," he said, "by Underwood and underwritten by Woodrow. It should suggest that it is called the Woodrow-Underwood bill."

Mr. Lafferty presented the Progressive belief in a protective tariff jolly and argued for the creation of a non-partisan tariff commission.
Representative Kahn of California Republican, denied that the protective tariff was responsible for monopolies and combinations. Mr. Kahn characterized the president's personal delivery of his message to congress as a dramatic incident, a bold stroke, a brilliant spectacle, excellently executed. He said if President Taft a year ago had announced he would deliver his message in person he would have been denounced as a reactionary in many quarters, and if Colonel Roosevelt had attempted a similar fact there would have been a considerable portion of population that would have pronounced the proceedings revolutionary.

DECLARES PRESTIGE OF EUROPE HAF SUFFERED BY FALL OF SCUTARI Vienna Newspaper Asserts Political and Military Prestige of Europe Has Suffered.

Vienna, April 26.—The official "Freundenblatt" discussing Scutari says:
"If Austria Hungary is to be really tranquilized the great powers must stop at a platonic declaration of their unanimous intentions; they must convert their good will into deeds without delay. In this connection the constant talk abroad of compensating Montenegro for her military aggression makes an especially bad impression."

"The political and military prestige of Europe has suffered by the fall of Scutari. If this inquiry to their prestige this check to their actions is a matter of indifference to the powers Austria cannot follow them along such a path. She must insist with all the emphasis at her command on remedy on a remedy being found as speedily and thoroughly as possible."

"The minimum demands is the immediate presentation by the powers to the committee of the protests they have already decided upon in the form of a vigorous demand for the evacuation of Scutari at once, and in the event of refusal, the adoption of further military measures for the forcible carrying out of the will of Europe. Any hanging back on the part of Europe from this minimum would excite feelings of dissatisfaction and bitterness in Austria-Hungary. It will be to Europe's interest to prevent this."

FREDMANN WILL SELL AMERICAN RIGHTS TO VACCINE Will Receive $125,000 in Cash and $1,800,000 in Stock in Institutions —Wholesale Drug Firm Is Purchaser.

New York, April 27.—Dr. Frederick F. Friedmann has arranged for the sale of the American rights to his anti-tuberculosis vaccine for $125,000 in cash and $1,800,000 in stock in thirty-six Friedmann institutes to be organized in as many selected states, with a total capiti-alization of $5,400,000 according to the "Times" this morning. A large wholesale drug firm is named as the purchaser.

It was stated at Dr. Friedmann's hotel apartments last night that all the plans had been made for the distribution of the vaccine but that the contract has not yet been signed.

DENIES TIME EXTENSION.
Washington, April 26.—The pure food board has denied an application of importers and distributors for a postponement beyond May 1st of the order forbidding the inter-state shipment of vegetables greened with copper salts. Enforcement of the order previously had been deferred from January 1st.

FAVOR ARBITRATION OF CANAL CONTROVERSY

U. S. IS DECLARED UNDER OBLIGA-TION TO ARBITRATE TOLL QUESTION

Speakers Before the American Society of International Law Also Assert That Congress Should At Once Repeal Tolls Exemption Act.

WASHINGTON, APRIL 26.—Both in set speeches and discussion, speakers at today's meeting of the American society of international law maintained that the United States was under a moral as well as international obligation to submit the Panama canal tolls controversy to arbitration. It also was held by several speakers that congress should at once repeal the tolls exemption act and submit the subject to a diplomatic negotiation. Hannis S. Taylor, former minister to Spain, declared that upon the settlement of the controversy hinged the century old friendship between the United States and Great Britain and voiced an earnest plea to congress to repeal the tolls act to permit diplomatic negotiations for an amicable adjustment of the question.

Favors Arbitration.
Amos S. Hershey, professor of international law at the University of Indiana was another speaker who desired to see the question submitted to arbitration. He said that "unless congress sees fit to repeal that part of the Panama canal act regarding the exemption of coastwise tolls, the United States is under an undoubted international obligation to enter into agreement with Great Britain to arbitrate the controversy."

"In view of the long and honorable history of the United States," Thomas Raeburn White, of Philadelphia, declared, "as a leader in the movement for the substitution of a system of international judicature for the present unsatisfactory methods of settling international disputes it is particularly appropriate that the opportunity should have been presented to establish such a precedent. It would be unworthy of the United States to rely upon what must be deemed a technical reason for declining to arbitrate, and it is to be hoped that the state department will not persist in the attitude which has been assumed and will embrace the opportunity of creating a precedent sustaining the proposition that it is not necessary in international law that injury should actually be suffered before a justifiable action arises."

Officers Were Elected.
Following the addresses and discussion these officers for next year were elected:

President—Ellihu Root, of New York.
Vice-presidents — Chief Justice White; Justice William R. Day, Philadelphia C. Knox; Andrew Carnegie; Joseph S. Choate; John W.
Foster; George Gray; William H.
Taft; William W. Morrow; Richard Olney; Oscar S. Strauss; Jacob M.
Dickinson; William J. Bryan and Horace Porter.

James Brown Scott was re-elected secretary and Chandler P.
Anderson treasurer. Tonight a banquet was given which closed the meeting.

NINETY-FOUR BODIES REMOVED AND TWO TAKEN OUT ALIVE
Emergency Rescue Crew Finish Work in Coal Mine Where Disastrous Explosion Occurred Wednesday.

Pittsburg, April 26.—When the emergency rescue crew of the Pittsburg station of the Government Bureau of Mines was withdrawn today from the Cincinnati mine of the Pittsburg Coal company near Finley-ville, Pa., where an explosion occurred Wednesday, there had been ninety-four bodies removed and two miners taken out alive.

According to Coroner James Hef-fran of Washington county, the mine has been explored thoroughly and all bodies are out except possibly those who may be buried under debris.

Today a dozen of the victims were buried. Of the 83 bodies in the mine at Monaca, a number have been identified. Some, however, will probably not be identified because recognition is almost impossible due to mutilation.

On Sunday, funerals of a number of the miners who lost their lives will be held at Courtney, near Finley-ville.

WILL NOT CANCEL POLICIES NOW IN FORCE
Kansas City, Mo., April 26.—Fire insurance agents in this city said to day there was no danger that the companies would attempt to cancel the policies now in force in this state.

Several leading agents said to day that to do that would cost the various companies at least four million dollars and that it would not be attempted. The policies now in force will be continued but no new business will be written.

REVEAL DOUBLE LIFE.
St. Paul, April 26.—After writing a note in which he bared a double life, C. L. Boucher, killed himself in an empty stock car here early today.

PLEADS FOR RE-UNITED REPUBLICAN PARTY

SENATOR TOWNSEND ADDRESSES AMERICUS REPUBLICAN CLUB

Extends "the Ungloved Hand of Party Friendship" To Those Who Have Strayed Away From the Republican Party in the Last National Campaign.

PITTSBURG, APRIL 26.—United States Senator Charles T. Townsend of Michigan, addressing the Americus Republican club here tonight on the occasion of its annual Grant Day banquet, pleaded for a re-united Republican party and to those who had strayed from it in the last national campaign he "extended the ungloved hand of genuine party friendship."

The senator in refuting his plea reviewed the record if the party while it was in power drawing upon the treasury department figures to illustrate his point. Comparison also was made with the proposed policy of the present administration and the last tariff.

"I am not here to quarrel with Republicans," said the senator or to retard the inevitable re-union which must occur, indeed, which, in Michigan and Chicago and St. Louis has largely occurred already, although the separatist in Massachusetts still continues."

"To these Republicans who felt it was their duty to divide the forces of the Republican party in the last campaign and thus to give the Democratic party its only possible opportunity for success, I extend the ungloved hand of genuine party friendship and ask them to accept it as a token of my strong desire to work with them in re-uniting and re-juvenating the party which we all have supported in the past."

"We can well afford to overthrow the differences which originated in the choice of leaders last year and unite in making our party stronger and better and more responsive to the great present needs of Progressive movement."

"In the face of Democratic incompetency, which seems to threaten our progress and prosperity, it is clearly the duty of all men who believe in Republican principles to unite in the common sense of those American policies which have made the United States at once the glory and envy of the world."

"I would like a new national congressional committee organized from those members of congress who have the confidence of the great mass of Republicans throughout the country.
A committee which understands the needs of the day and which would take up at once the work of organizing publicity so necessary to a right understanding by the people of real issues which confront them. This committee could do as well appointed to day as one year from to day and now is the time to correct the misrepresentations which are being sent out to the country."

"Let us therefore as Republicans divest ourselves of all the petty isms and animosities which have recently divided us and with new leaders—if need be—meet the responsibilities which are now upon us."

HAS BEEN MISQUOTED.

St. Louis, Mo., April 26.—After the hearing in the Henry Clay Pierce suit adjourned to day until next Tuesday morning, Henry Clay Pierce issued a written statement in which he declared that his testimony yesterday relative to his name being signed to a guarantee for a $2,100,000 loan, his son-in-law, Eben Richards, had been misquoted in the newspapers.

F. N. Jackson, attorney for Mr.
Pierce said that elsewhere in his testimony, Mr. Pierce had stated that Richards had received power of attorney from Pierce and therefore did not sign Pierce's name without his knowledge or consent, as was published.

WESTERN RUNNERS CAPTURE BIG EVENTS

SEVERAL RECORDS ARE SMASHED AT EASTERN TRACK MEET

Illinois U. Relay Team Won the One Mile Relay—Michigan Runners Capture Two Mile Event and U. of Penn. Milers Win Four Mile Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 26.— Western runners took two of the three big blue ribbon events at the annual carnival of relay races and field sports on Franklin field today, the University of Illinois winning the one mile relay college championship of America in 3:22 4-5 and Michigan taking the two-mile relay national championship. The University of Pennsylvania won the other big national championship, her mile runners being more than a match for the other milers in the four mile contest. Her time was 18 minutes 8 2-5 seconds. In winning the two mile relay Michigan cut two-fifths of a second off the record, her half milers going the distance in 8 minutes flat. Former record held by Pennsylvania was 8:00 2-5.

The Pennsylvania freshmen with Meredith, the Olympic champion, running as anchor man, won the one mile freshman relay national championship in the record time of 3:25 4-5.

The former record was 3:26 4-5.
The clipping of this record was due to Meredith's running, who covered his quarter mile relay in 40 4-5 seconds.

In this race the Michigan freshmen failed to hear the announcement of the event and the race was started without them. Later the Michigan freshmen were permitted to run against time and were given second place, their time being 3:34 4-5.

The one mile preparatory school championship of America was won by Phillips-Exeter in 3:26 4-5, breaking the world's scholastic record for the event of 3:27 1-5.

The one mile relay national cash for high schools was compared by the Boston English school in 3:32.

New World's Discus Record.
A new world's record for the discus throw was made by L. Talbot, formerly of Pennsylvania college and Cornell. He threw the weight 142 feet 1-2 inch. The world's record is 141 feet 3 1-2 inches, made by M.
J. Sheridan in 1911.

Another record which came near being broken was for the 120 yards hurdle, J. B. Nicholson of Missouri, western inter-collegiate champion, equalling the world's figures of 15 1-5 seconds held by himself and several other past and present hurdlers. He equalled the figures in his first trial heat, only to be disqualified in the semi-final by knocking down too many hurdles.

Lippincott Pushes Cortis.
While the fleet runners from the University of Illinois, the favorites in the race, led in every relay, showing a team of consistently high class flyers, the event nevertheless was a thrilling one from start to finish. Despite the fleetness of the Illinois men, Dartmouth's quarter-milers were right at their heel in the first three-quarters, after which Lippincott of Pennsylvania, an Olympic runner, forged ahead, passed Chicago university, which was running third, shut out Dartmouth and went after Cortis, Illinois' last runner.

But the pace was too fast and the western man broke the tape first to the intense joy of the western contingent.

Two Mile Event Close.
In the college championship relay race which was close all the way, Dartmouth's half mile men had carried the lead to the last half mile with Michigan right up, Virginia third and Pennsylvania fourth. In the last relay, Half of Michigan went out in front and was never headed.
Dartmouth held second place and Pennsylvania passing Virginia finished third.

Pennsylvania's mile runners held the lead practically all the way in the four mile relay championship with Princeton running second and Ohio State University third. Northwestern university fell behind in the first mile and was almost lapped on the quarter mile track.

Several Olympic Stars Entered.
With the exception of Nicholson's hurdling and the mighty heave of Talbot in the discus throw, the special events did not bring out anything above the ordinary despite the fact that there were Olympic and intercollegiate champions entered.
Richards of Brigham Young university, the Olympic champion, won the high jump with a leap of six feet two inches which is about two inches short of his jump at Stockholm.

In the pole vault M. S. Wright of Dartmouth, who holds the pole vault record of 13 feet 2 1-4 inches, was nosed out of the competition at 12 feet 1-2 inch. Curtis, of Syracuse, won the event with a vault of 12 feet 6 1-2 inches.

In the 100 yard dash, Thomas of Princeton, the eastern intercollegiate champion, failed to qualify. J. C.
Patterson of Pennsylvania won the event in ten seconds flat.

Talbot, besides winning the discus throw, also carried off the first prize in the hammer throw. His distance was 163 feet, 7 inches.
Cronley of the University of Virginia won the 120 yards hurdle in 15 3-5 seconds. The broad jump went to Wasson of Notre Dame, who jumped 22 feet 2 1-4 inches.
In the mile, college relay championship of America won by Illinois, the victorious team was composed of Henderson, Hunter, Sanders, Cortis, Pennsylvania's runners were Craig, McGowan, Foster, Lippincott. They finished second; Dartmouth, finishing third, had O'Connor, Gardner, Rose and Olson; Chicago, with Matthews, Breathed, Kuh and Parker, finished fourth.

FINDS GRAFT PREVAILING AMONG ILLINOIS U. STUDENTS

Dean Clark Makes Startling Disclosures Regarding Theta Nu Epsilon Fraternity.

Urbana, Ill., April 26.—Thomas A.
Clark, dean of men in the University of Illinois has found graft prevailing among a set of students here.

Attacking as responsible for conditions a sophomore secret society, Theta Nu Epsilon, the dean set the university in an uproar by his charges.

"The tendency to dishonesty and graft which Theta Nu Epsilon has fostered has spread and has encouraged loose ideals generally," said Dean Clark. "Drinking, gambling, cribbing and hazing are indirectly encouraged by the low moral and political ideals for which Theta Nu Epsilon stands."

Graft has become so accepted, the dean says, that even a religious worker has been heard to say that he could not see why he had to work for nothing.

Theta Nu Epsilon, is a secret society recruited from members of the sophomore class. It is under faculty interdiction and most national fraternities forbid members to affiliate with it.

In spite of this interdiction T. N.
E. has flourished. No one ever really knows its members.

DECLARED ERRONEOUS

Seipp Brewing Company Denies Having East Jefferson Street Property Rented or Leased.

Chicago, April 26.—The testimony given yesterday at Springfield before the senatorial vice commission by Lyman Phillips today was declared to be erroneous by Percy Andrae president of the Conrad-Seipp Brewing company. Mr.
Phillips was quoted as saying that his property at 716 East Jefferson street, Springfield, was leased to the Seipp Brewing company and that, although he knew nothing about it, the upper floor was said to be used as a resort.

The records of the brewing company show no such lease and the Springfield agent of the Seipp Brewing company asserts that the property is not rented by that company with or without a lease.

BIG BUSINESS IN ST. LOUIS

Great Rush of Property Owners to Take Out Policies Before Companies Quit Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., April 26.—Fire insurance agents in St. Louis were busy today placing policies, as there is a great rush of property owners to take out insurance before the risk companies cease writing business in Missouri, April 30. Many agents expect to keep their offices open all day Sunday in order to write as many new policies as possible.

George D. Markham, president of the St. Louis Insurance Agents' association, said today that mutual companies probably would be organized to take care of the business of the state, but doubted whether such concern would take the risks of the large cities. The insurance in-force in St. Louis is estimated at $700,000,000.

The state is being flooded with circulars of companies, the financial standing of which yet is to be investigated by the insurance commission and by the banking interests.
Whether insurance in many of these companies would be considered by bankers, good security for a loan is considered by many property owners problematical.

AMES AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE WINS MEET FROM NEBRASKA

Every Event of the Track Meet Was Hotly Contested—Ames Won by 60 to 54 Score.

Lincoln, Neb., April 26.—With the result in doubt until the last event, Ames Agricultural college of Iowa won the track meet from Nebraska University this afternoon by a score of 60 to 54. Every event was hotly contested. The mile relay brought the undoing of Nebraska. The four Cornhusker runners bid hard for the race and during three laps piled up a lead of 20 yards, a lead that was lost by Beaver in the last lap, when Crawford of Ames, by a wonderful burst of speed, passed the Nebraska within five feet of the tape.

DR. BIGELOW LEAVES GOVERNMENT SERVICE.

Washington, April 26.—Dr. W. D.
BigeLOW, assistant chief of the bureau of chemistry, whose name figured frequently in the controversy which followed the resignation of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, left the government service today. Before he came to the bureau he was connected with various educational institutions throughout the west.

Correspondence between Dr.
BigeLOW and Dr. Carl Albers, chief of the bureau divulges that BigeLOW is to become chemist of a research laboratory to be established here by a canners association.

BigeLOW was one of Dr. Wiley's chief lieutenants and always sided with him in the various questions which the bureau of chemistry was called upon to decide.

Purity of color and freedom from flaws are very important elements--as also are shape and style of cutting.

The most important feature in buying diamonds is the source you procure them from.

BROOKLYN CHURCH MARKET.

The Ladies Aid society of Brooklyn M. E. church held a market Saturday for the sale of bread, cakes and other good things to eat. Their goods occupied a prominent place in the south window at Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie and were very temptingly displayed. The ladies in charge were Mrs. W. R. Brittenham, Mrs. Lee Wiegand and Mrs. Charles Sheppard.

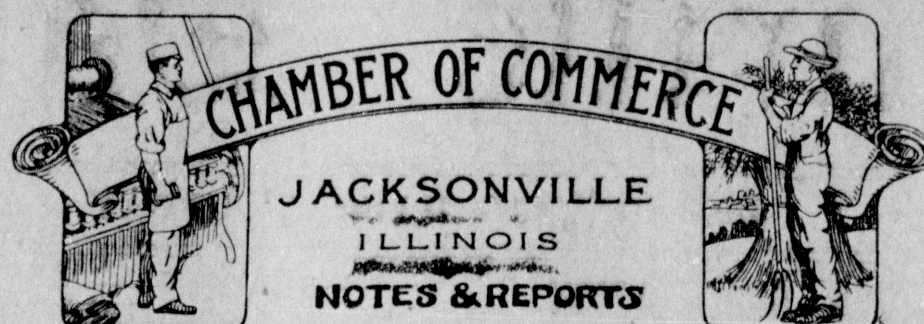

Mrs. J. K. Combs and Misses Florence and Georgia Nettleship of Beardstown were shopping in the city Saturday.

Rev. Samuel McKenna, pastor of a Baptist church in Alton, was a guest Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Floreth on West College avenue.

Mrs. G. W. McElroy of Arenzville was visiting in Jacksonville Saturday.

Mrs. Edward Petefish and daughter, Louise, of Litchberry were among the visitors in town yesterday.

Our Own Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville, Illinois was given wide advertisement the past week at the Illinois Retail Merchant's convention held at Alton, Illinois. Cities were represented by delegations of prominent retailers from every town and city of any consequence in the state, and they all were deeply impressed by the activity of the men who came from Jacksonville.

No other city has a similar plan of organization for a commercial club such as our own Chamber of Commerce, and inquiries are being received daily at the office requesting copies of our plan. Cities of much size generally have two or more separate organizations and they are bound to conflict with one another. They can never work as one, unless they are organized as one. Instead of Jacksonville having a retail merchant's association, a commercial club composed of the younger men, a business men's association and what not, these same interests are all represented in the Chamber of Commerce.

One city has a strong commercial club, but their retail merchant's association is weak. If they are a part of each other, the stronger will bolster up the weaker members. The departmental plan can be used in a city of 250,000 population as well as in a town of 2500. A secretary can be employed by each department if necessary but they are under the guidance of but one president and one board of directors.

We should feel proud of our Chamber of Commerce, which has grown to be a power and an instrument of influence in this community. We are constructed on a broad enough basis that every member can find some place in the harness of duty.

There are one hundred and fifty other business men who should be willing to pay $12 a year in order to see Jacksonville progress.

Is That Somebody You?

There was a man in our town

Whose head was made of bone

He turned our Chamber of Commerce down

And fought it out alone.

Said he, "I don't believe in such,

I haven't twelve to spare.

"I'll make a success in my own affairs"

"And let the others care."

He was soon distanced in the race

And lost his every cent

And then appeared upon his place

A sign which read "To Rent."

Jacksonville broke down all precedents in bringing the Retail Merchant's convention of the state to this city in 1914. It is always customary that a city must put in an invitation one or two years before they ever have a just claim for asking to entertain the meeting.

For three years this body of retailers had met in the southern part of the state and there was an understanding among all the delegations that it would go to Ottawa next year.

Decatur had asked for it for

CONSERVATORY NOTES.

The spring festival concerts will take place on May 15th and 16th, 27th, and 30th. The graduating recitals are on May 15th and 16th, the faculty concert on May 27th, and the chorus and orchestra concert on May 30th, at Westminster church.

A musical program will be given for the mothers' concert at State street church on Friday evening

May 9th, by the conservatory orchestra under Mr. Kritch's direction, the conservatory string quartet, and Mr. Munger, pianist.

A students' recital will be given in Recital hall Friday afternoon,

May 2nd, at four o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

Perhaps never before has Jacksonville had the pleasure of welcoming such an interpreter of song as appeared before the Illinois college conservatory and their guests at

When Marcus Kellermann gave a most excellent program of German and English songs as a courtesy to his old friend Mr. Kritch.

Mrs. Kellermann possesses a baritone voice of glorious quality under perfect control. His range and variety of tone are truly amazing.

Indeed, it was difficult to believe that one human being is capable of producing the effects which he brought forth in this recital, so remarkable was the contrast of his fortissimo climaxes and the exquisite delicacy of his pianissimo work.

His dramatic power is extraordinary and enabled him to hold his audience enthralled completely as he carried them through the vast range of emotional moods born of the numbers he sang.

His informal encouragement and explanations made the less understandable parts of his program quite clear to everyone.

Miss Desmond responded completely to the demands made by the artist in his varied program on the accompanist. Her understanding and sympathy were throughout entirely satisfying. Her solo numbers were well played and evidenced excellent musicianship and technique.

Mr. Kritch made a short visit to Whitehall on Friday, April 25th.

Mr. Munger is spending Saturday and Sunday in Chicago and returns early Monday morning.

Russell Morrow won first place in four years and so sure were they that Ottawa was to be the 1914 convention city that they did not bid for it this year.

At the psychological moment Jacksonville jumped into the race with a determination to win and they did to the surprise of all the old veterans who said we had no chance. This shows that our organization could do good many things to boost our town and better certain conditions here, if after we are sure we are right, to fight it out to a finish.

Our Next Get-together Luncheon.

Tomorrow will be held the next noonday luncheon at the Dunlap hotel at thirty-five cents per plate. Mr. James H. Shaw will be one of the speakers, so arrange to come. These luncheons afford a good opportunity for the members to meet together and at the same time lose but little time from their business. Notices have been sent out stating we will sit down promptly at 12:15 sharp, so get the habit of being on time.

Chautauqua Envelopes.

The chautauqua envelopes which were ordered should be here some time next week. Just as soon as they arrive they will be distributed to all the merchants. There are quite a number of concerns which send out immense quantities of letters, that were well supplied with envelopes. In order that they can do their part in advertising our educational festival, the secretary is ordering small colored stickers which can be stamped on the letter heads.

In addition ribbons will be printed and will be distributed and worn by the delegates at different conventions telling why you should be in Jacksonville, Illinois the ten biggest days in the year, August 21st to 31st. We are going to have a festival that will establish itself in the hearts and minds of our people as an occasion of great importance.

Tenting at the Chautauqua.

One of the fevers which will be contagious is the tenting out feature. Tents can be rented at a very reasonable price and Nichols park in August should look like the camping ground of a regiment of national guards. Many people are speaking of putting up tents not necessarily to spend their whole time at the park, but to provide a place for the children to play during the day time.

Those Rating Sheets.

There are quite a number of our retail members who have refused or else are very slow in turning in their rating sheets. No rating system meets the requirement of satisfaction and efficiency unless it includes an expression of all the retail men of the community. It is no easy matter to fill out the rating sheets sent you from the secretary's office, but you should be willing to have them prepared within a month's time after they have been sent you. Please make out your sheets and send them in.

FRANKLIN VISITORS.

Among the Franklin people in Jacksonville Saturday were Mrs. Lewis Roberts, Mrs. Bert Sitton, Mrs. Newton Wood, Misses Grace Armstrong, Grace Hill, Ethel Bruner, Bea Anderson, Harriet Story and Mary Douglas, Messrs. J. S. Hart, Charles Story, James Peare, G. J. Dowell and J. B. Seaver.

DRUGS AND GROCERIES

Many have wondered if a drug store could be successful in connection with a grocery.

HENDERSON CORSETS

These splendid Corsets have been accepted as the standard popular priced models. When we say "accepted" we mean that not only the retailer, but also the wearers have strongly placed their approval on these corsets.

The problem of making a truly stylish and serviceable corset from one to five dollars is not an easy one. There must be economy in buying and manufacturing and in volume of output. Both of these factors are accomplished and today we are able to give what is undoubtedly the greatest values in moderate priced corsets that have ever been attempted before.

The unprecedented demand for Henderson Corsets is ample testimony to the fact that they are of exceptional worth in style, value and wearing qualities.

The style, fit, comfort and service of a corset depends largely upon its construction.

The Leading Features of

The side stays are double; they are made of the highest grade, non-rustable, flexible, clock spring steel. The bones are double, double stripping covering bones and side stays. The clasp is practically unbreakable.

ATHLETES WILL COME FRIDAY

WESTERN ILLINOIS HIGH SCHOOL LEAGUE MEET NEAR.

Hard Race For Honors Promised in Annual Event Which Takes Place On College Track—Beardstown Will Be Strong Contender—Entries Coming In.

Competition for honors in the western Illinois high school league meet, which takes place here next Friday promises to be keener than in former years. While some of the schools, as usual, will not have men entered in each event, there are many of the schools, who will send a full quota of athletes. One new school will be seen in the list this year, White Hall, who takes the place of Rushville. Rushville asked to be relieved from membership, which was granted and about the same time White Hall knocked for admission. The latter town is certainly welcomed into the ranks of the W. I. H. S. L. and it is safe to say that the students, who represent the Greene county school will make a showing far better than some other towns who have been in the league almost since its inception. It may be at the next regular business session of the league that any school which desires to continue membership will have to send in a larger list of entries. In some of the years past one or more schools have had only three or four men entered. In that event, athletics in such schools is below par and the students are not realizing the opportunity of being participants in a meet such as the western Illinois. Saturday Principal Gore received a communication from Chandierville asking if they could not send over team Friday. Of course they had to be refused, but it is not at all unlikely these towns will be allowed membership after this year.

Beardstown Strong Contenders.
With the meet close at hand the prophets have started to work and the winner picked. From dope it appears that Beardstown has a strong bid for the honors this year. This has been impressed from the fact that they ran away with the meet in Griggsville last Friday, winning almost double the points of their nearest opponent. They have in Knight a fast man for the dashes and 880 and in Dickens and Thiehoff they have some first class material for the weight events.

Just what figure Jacksonville will cut this year is hard to estimate. Some of the material is new at track work. Cannon is pretty sure to win the pole vault and the 220 yard hurdles. He is also there on the running broad jump. Jacksonville's weakness is in the weights, but there should be a number of the men who are able to annex several seconds.

Reports come from White Hall that when the honors are announced the Greene county town will have to be reckoned with. They have a strong man in Edward Roodhouse, who runs the 220 and 440 dashes. Clyde King, who is entered for the 50, 220 yard hurdles and standing broad jump, is reputed to be a fast man. Little is known of the other towns but dark horses always loom up at every meet, which tends to cut down the percentage of a team, which is picked as a winner. It will be remembered that last year the Griggsville meet that Jacksonville won with 48 points and when they came over to the W. I. H. S. L. they only got 15 points. The meet as usual will be officiated by Illinois college men and the track will be in the pink of condition so that some fast events will be pulled off.

Standings Last Year.
The following is the standing of the teams at the meet last year and those who attended will remember the strong race between Jacksonville and Beardstown, the last event, figuring in the winner:

MORTUARY

English.
Henry W. English received word Saturday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. James W. English who passed away at her home in Joplin, Mo., Saturday. Although Mrs. English had been in failing health for some weeks, her condition was not considered critical, and her death was somewhat unexpected.

Mr. English, who was a well known attorney in this city preceded his wife in death in 1889 and Mrs. English, who until that time had been a resident of this city, has been making her home in Missouri for the past fifteen years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Julia Paul, and Mrs. Clara Shepard of Joplin, Mo., and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson of Carrollton, and one son, Henry W. English of this city. One son, Nathaniel, preceded his mother in death. She is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. J. A. Bellatti, Miss Louisa Stryker and Miss Charlotte Stryker, and one brother, Henry Stryker, all of this city.

The remains are expected to arrive in this city Monday evening at 5:23 o'clock via the Chicago & Alton. Funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. English, 326 South Diamond street, Tuesday. A further notice will appear later.

Buchanan.
Funeral services for Joseph Buchanan were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church at Litterberry in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The services were impressively conducted by Rev. E. P. Gish, pastor of the church. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. W. H. Crum, Miss Wilma Crum, J. S. Hitchens and L. A. Cooper and the many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. Harry Petefish, Miss May Martin, Miss Bridget Lockhart and Miss Annabel Crum.

Interment was made in the Arcadia cemetery and the bearers were: William Deaton, William Jumper, W. E. Murry, J. A. Litter, J. J. Brown and J. W. Martin.

Carmondy.
A. Carmondy died at the Jacksonville state hospital Friday night at 8:10 o'clock and the remains were taken to the Reynolds undertaking establishment and Saturday evening were sent to Decatur for interment.

O'Neal.
A telegram was received by W. S. Graves Saturday announcing the death of his uncle, Oscar O'Neal at Whipple barracks, Prescott, Ariz. The deceased was born east of Jacksonville on a farm in 1830. He was the son of Thomas O'Neal and a half brother to J. C. O'Neal who removed from Jacksonville about a year ago to Lamar, Mo. Mrs. N. B. Graves and Mrs. H. R. Green are sisters and W. S. and Thomas Graves are nephews of the deceased. The members of his immediate family surviving are his wife, and one son, Mark B. O'Neal.

Mr. O'Neal who was 83 years old left Jacksonville in 1851 for the southwest. He engaged in cattle and sheep ranching on an extensive scale and acquired such familiarity with the geography of the state of Arizona that he was of great assistance in contests with the Indians. He took a particularly active part in the campaigns of General Cook against the Apaches.

Gen. George Crook, an old veteran and Indian fighter who won fame for himself in battles against the Sioux in the Northwest had been ordered to Arizona in 1882 to deal with the Apaches with whom serious trouble arose in 1884. Crook and his command concerned chiefly with the ring leader of the Apache depredations, the dreaded Geronimo who had left his lands on the San Carlos reservation and gone on the war path. The American forces brought Geronimo and his 149 braves to a stand in March 1885 after a long campaign near the northern Mexican border and a number of final skirmishes near Casa Grande in the Sierra Madre mountains of northern Sonora. This trouble with the Apaches continued for a year or so longer after Gen. Crook had been replaced by Gen. Miles and did not cease entirely until the old chief Geronimo had been made a prisoner for life and sent to Fort Sill, Okla. The war with Geronimo was long drawn and bloody as the Apaches when once aroused were among the most treacherous and warlike of the Indians.

Van Dyke.
Mrs. E. J. Howe of 749 East Chambers street has received word of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke of New Lisbon, Wis., who will be remembered as one of the sisters present at the funeral of Mrs. M. J. Bridges last October. Mrs. Van Dyke and Mrs. Bridges were twin sisters.

New Method Gas Stoves Are Different. Why?

First—They are more satisfactory to the user on account of consuming 20 to 40 per cent less gas, and the many patented improvements which they have make them do better baking, broiling and toasting, easier to operate and to take care of.

Second—When properly installed complaints of burners choking, imperfect cooking, valve handles coming off, oven bottoms warping, oven doors falling and breaking, explosions in ovens, and parts rusting out are never heard of from the users.

THE SEASON FOR BUILDING.

The spring is the time to begin building and as a matter of fact most buildings are begun during this season. In Jacksonville this year it cannot be said that there is a great building boom but nevertheless there is a healthy growth in the matter of improvements and it is a noteworthy fact that a great deal of the lumber being used and planned for comes from the Crawford yard.

LAKOTA, N. D.

The following items were contributed by a member of the Morgan County colony at Lakota.

The weather is fine and most farmers are through seeding wheat.

Charles E. Henry was calling on the Clayton Brothers, Jop Henry and Sinclair Russell the 23rd and reports that they are getting along fine with their seeding.

Miss Elizabeth Russel arrived last week and seems to be quite improved in health.

Several men arrived from different parts of Illinois and Indiana this week to work on the big farm. The Wandusky farm, situated south of Lakota on Stump Lake consisting of 1500 acres was sold to a Mr. Sturtevant of Iowa for $43.50 per acre. Mr. Sturtevant is well pleased with his investment. The farm is located on the shores of the lake and is a beautiful home.

Fall rye is looking fine. Quite an acreage was sown last fall. Rather a new crop for this country, but the prospects are fine. Those who sowed rye last year realized quite a neat profit.

There will be quite a bit of corn planted around Lakota this year in season, heretofore they have been planting corn after seeding time, making the season too short to mature properly.

Mrs. Lena Henry was calling on Mrs. Ruth Wardle and Miss Hazel Megginson yesterday.

Mrs. Newt Shelton and daughter Faith were business callers in Lakota Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clayton from Arvillas spent Sunday with Clayton Brothers.

Jop Henry is still mourning the loss of his hog "Cully" who jumped out of a car on his way up here. Mr. Henry has been unable to get any trace of him even by offering a large reward.

Newt Shelton's wild duck which he found setting on a nest and put a cage over it is getting real tame.

Frank W. Hinly and family were calling in town Sunday.

Matt Hickham and Bernice Carroll have learned to drive seven horses on a triple plow without changing the color of the atomosphere.

Charles Hughes and Bernice Carroll were Lakota callers Sunday.

A Melie's two-reel feature.

"Loved by a Maori Chieftess"

This wonderful play was first produced in New Zealand, where it was enacted throughout by Maoris aboriginal natives.

Wena, the daughter of Chief Te Rangikaharuru of the Nagatariu tribe of Maoris, is approached by a sorceress, who predicts that she, Wena, will marry a white man, tall and handsome, with eyes blue as the sky and a fair beard.

Chadwick, an English trapper, tramping the woods in search of game, is taken prisoner by several of the Nagatariu and brought before their chief, who orders that he be burned at the stake. But Wena recognizes in Chadwick the man of the sorceress, prediction. She induces her father to permit him to escape; holds him carry it out and returns to prevent being pursued, but not without having sworn eternal love for him and promising to meet him later and elope. The further developments are of great interest.

CHEERFUL NEWS
For Feeble Old People.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectually than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthening and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

A grand niece of Alexander Hamilton over eighty years of age once remarked: "Vinol is a god-send to old people. Thanks to Vinol I have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly, feel active and well. It is the finest ever used."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money.

This exceptional value has always puzzled and astounded the world. But when you take into consideration the economy of building 40,000 cars a year you have the answer. The growing familiarity of 53 nations with the tremendous Overland manufacturing methods, caused Overland sales to increase by leaps and bounds. The market for the best production is unlimited.

The Essence of Success is the Proper Use of Time.

Every prosperous business man is habitually enterprising and alert. He estimates the minimum time required for every transaction, then tries to finish the work within the allotted period.

To the mind of such a man, the question frequently recurs throughout the day, "Can-not this be done by Long Distance," and upon consideration, he often decides that the telephone method is not only practical but preferable.

ON THE SIDE LINES.

Mordcael Brown has been under treatment by Bonestetter Reese, at Youngstown, Ohio. The pitcher was assured that his injured knee is only slightly damaged and that in a couple of weeks' time he would be able to take his turn in the box for the Cincinnati Reds. If this is true it will be a big help to the sorely pressed Tinkers.

Chase is not making a startling success at second base for Chance's team. He is all right on fast ones but the slow teasing rollers are what show him up. He is a left hander and he must play the bag. A switch back to first may come at any time.

It was a bad case of "Too Much Johnson" for the Boston Reds in President Wilson's town. The leader of the house, Mr. Underwood, says he is heartily glad the Senators are going on the road for a while as he will now be able to get a little work out of congress. During the series with Boston the sessions of congress might just as well have been held at the ball park. There was more than a quorum present at every game and the president himself was right on hand to sign bills.

Ren Mulford says that Tinker has injured the fighting spirit into the Reds as no manager has done in years. But what good is fighting spirit behind a weak pitching staff? Inquires Ren.

Jack Coombes is in a Philadelphia hospital threatened with pneumonia. Earl Mack, son of Coach Mack, is a chip of the old block, sure enough. He is managing the Raleigh, N. C., team of the North Carolina league.

Mike Doulin seems to be out of it altogether. He is on the Phillips' reserve list but the club is making no effort to sign him. When a player begins to go back he goes in a hurry.

Cleveland is all puffed up over the great showing of the Naps. They wouldn't exchange Year Gregg for Walter Johnson. Couldn't they mean.

An idea of the extent to which organized baseball has grown may be had when it is stated that there are forty-five leagues in existence in this country. This gives employment over a thousand players and officials. The amount of money invested in plants and franchises runs far into the millions. The total salaries paid would stagger the belief of one not familiar with the game.

Life is made up of two periods. The first is spent in planning what one is going to do. The second in explaining why it wasn't done. Callahan seems to have reached the second post. He is as much as accusing some of his fellow bonhead work. That isn't going to help the Sox to regain their stride. The Sox are one big disappointment so far.

Hank O'Day is to return to his place behind the mask and pad, which he never should have left. "Better a day of umpiring than a cycle of managing Cincinnati" was his sage reflection as he dropped his copy of Locksley Hall One Year After.

If Roger Bresnahan can return to batting form Manager Evers would be glad to have Archer on first base regularly as he is a heavy hitter and always was a star at first. In fact Jimmy can play any position on the diamond right up to the handle. He is a fair pitcher, too. Roger seems to be showing up and James can't be spared from back of the log.

Artie Hoffman will have to play sterling ball or the young southerner, Everett Booe, will displace him before Decoration Day. Pittsburgh scribbles Professor James H. Rayhill, the well known local athletic enthusiast, is well acquainted with the young man and says he deserves all the good things said of him. The professor boarded with Booe's family while in the south some years ago. Melan is playing regularly in the Venice outfield and is hitting well. Bush is umpiring out there and hasn't been murdered yet.

Kid Gleason is the man responsible for the showing of Russell, the young Texas phenom of the Sox. On the training trip the youngster was assigned to Gleason's division and the Kid at once marked him for a corner. Callahan took this word for it and has reason to think his lucky stars. The boy promises to be a real sensation.

Chance's team showed bad form against the Red Sox. The box score reads like the record of a minor league contest. Trouble ahead for Washington. It is reported that Walter Johnson is to be granted two weeks leave of absence for the purpose of signing a life contract. Miss Anna Scully, of Cambridge, Mass., is the fortunate young lady. Oh, Walter, why couldn't you have waited till the pennant was safely won?

The Athletics go into the lead by virtue of their win over the Senators. Monday will come the big game. What would you give to be there.

The score of the Athletic-Washington game, 3 to 2, just about expresses the relative strength of the two teams.

Tommy Hackett and his Gems will pass through this city this morning on their way to open a series with the Senators at Springfield this afternoon. He has won a nice game yesterday and Quincy's well known army of knockers has ceased the beating of the anvil chorus temporarily.

A wild throw to the grandstand by McCarthy, the youngster trying to fill the shoes of the mighty Wagner, was what caused Pittsburgh to fall with a dull sickening thud. The Cubs have been taking advantage of these fielding slips to fatten their percentage. Evers should take the two scheduled for breaking home grounds with the Pirates without much trouble. Unless Hans gets back into the game in a week's time the Clarks can be set down as out of it.

The Quincy Whig has this to say of the Gems: "Tommy Hackett has a team that is going to be heard from this season. Every one of his youngsters looks as if he was going to be up and coming before the season is very far advanced." Which makes nice reading for us. Tom was born and raised right here in Jacksonville and learned to play on the local lots.

Nap Rucker was there when it became necessary to save that game for the Dodgers. As a wing worker the great southpaw is in class with Ed Walsh, Selby and Quiesser as Battery for Danville has a familiar ring to it. Wonder if this is the same Selby who used to pitch for the Veterans in Kitty league days? Art Quiesser was just breaking in then and was a popular fellow with local fans.

St. Louis added to the gloom in Tinkerville by beating out the Reds after the latter had a good chance to register. That fatal weakness in the Clack box was once more apparent. One thing is sure, Huggins has the Cardinal bunch fighting for games like the St. Louis Browns of years ago. That's a new deal down there.

Mr. Hub Perdue wasn't equal to the task of downing the Quakers. Mighty few other pitchers, either. The Douin tribe is the best in the league on form. Nothing but a railroad wreck can keep them out of the first division.

Both the Sox and the Cubs are at home today, the former with Stovall's Browns and the latter with Fred Clark's Pirate crew as opponents. These ought to be great games and if the day is fair both parks will be loaded to the guards. Weather outlook is bad, though.

KILBANE ONLY CHAMP TAKING CHANCE IN RING

HEAD OF FEATHER WEIGHT DIVISION BARS NONE.

Johnny Will Meet Dundee, the New York Feather Next Tuesday Night and Should Have No Difficulty in Winning Decision—Ad Volgaast Advised to Quit the Game.

By James J. Corbett, Former Heavy-weight Champion of the World.

Of all the champions in the several classes of professional pugilism Johnny Kilbane, head of the feather weight division, is the only one who seems to be willing to take a chance in the ring. Since defeating Abe Attell at Los Angeles over a year ago, Kilbane has appeared in more than a dozen bouts. True, these affairs have been limited to ten or twelve rounds, still there is no getting away from the fact that he has given the best boys of his weight class over the abbreviated distances. What other champion or recent years, barring his immediate predecessor, Attell, has a record that will compare with Kilbane's? Not one of them.

And for some mysterious reason this same Kilbane is about as popular with the rank and file of newspaper writers as a rainy day with a baseball magnate. Especially is this true right here in Gotham, where the champion has a clever boxer half a dozen times or more within the past twelve months. The attitude of the critics is difficult to understand when it is considered that Johnny has outpointed his rivals in every instance. With one exception in the local starts he failed to knock his men out, but in every case established supremacy beyond question.

While other champions have been stalling Kilbane has been fighting and, what's more, making good right along. Tuesday night he starts again; this time over the twenty round course and in the same ring he won his premier honors from Attell. Johnny Dundee, the New York feather, will be his opponent on this occasion—and the local man is acknowledged as his most formidable rival.

From the little I have seen of Kilbane in action I think he measures well up to the standard of the title holders in the division of the past. He has about everything a champion needs. He is a clever boxer, a hard hitter and a good ring general. I believe he outclasses the rest of the feather and is fully equal to the task set for him next Tuesday.

Why don't some enterprising matchmaker bring Freddy Welsh and Jack Britton together? These boys have been challenging each other for several weeks (in the papers), but I haven't heard of a match being clinched. The English champion seems to be willing to meet Britton, and Jack claims nothing would suit him better than a bout with Welsh. With the boxers in this humor it seems to me it shouldn't be a hard job to arrange a match.

Both boys are skillful, brainy boxers and on the dope fairly well matched. Outside of a match in which Willie Ritchie or Packey McFarland would figure as Welsh's opponent, a more attractive contest could not be staged.

Naturally the sports would prefer to see Welsh and McFarland clash. There has been a bitter rivalry between these clever exponent of boxing for a number of years, and although they have met three times, the question of supremacy has never been satisfactorily settled. Five years ago Packey was given the decision in a ten round bout at Milwaukee, but Welsh's friends made a roar that the verdict was unjust. A few months later they went twenty-five rounds to a draw, according to Jim Jeffries, who refereed the mill. Packey has never forgiven the big fellow for that decision, which he claims was the rawest deal he ever received. The twenty round meeting in London two years ago ended in a draw, although the English papers stated at the time that Packey had made the better showing.

It is generally conceded that Welsh is McFarland's nearest rival in point of skill, and it is hoped an agreement can be reached on the weight question. Welsh has announced publicly that McFarland can have a match at 135 at 3 o'clock, but the stock yards' boxer wants the limit raised a couple of pounds. Billy Gheen, matchmaker for the Madison Square Garden club, is trying to effect a compromise and if successful will stage the bout early next month.

Willie promoters are looking about for a suitable opponent for Willie Ritchie, when that young man designs to return to the ring, they will do well to give Jack Britton's claims respectful consideration. If Britton can make 133 pounds ringside, as he asserts, it seems to me the shortest he should be given. Joe Rivers and Leach Cross, two of the leading candidates for the job.

If Rivers and Cross are to be judged by their battles in this city it would seem that Britton has a better right to a match with the champion than either. When Jack boxed Leach he won easily, and did the trick in such a manner as to leave no doubt of his superiority. In two attempts Rivers failed to best the fighting dentist, for the reason he had a "shade," as a majority of the local papers agreed, the margin was so small that it still remains a question which is the better fighter.

Britton's record the past year is a most impressive one. He has met, and won, reverse, and that at the hands of the great McFarland. If Rivers is reckoned a worthy foe for Ritchie on the strength of his bouts with Cross, then Britton must certainly be given a look-in for the title. Provided, of course, he can make the weight, and he says he can. In his bouts around here he has not been forced to go 133 pounds, but as a rule has scaled only a pound or two over that figure.

Figuring along the same line of dope it is a lucky thing for Willie Ritchie, clever boy as he unquestionably is, that Packey McFarland can't do 133 pounds and be fit to fight. McFarland looks to be the daddy of all the boys who fight anywhere around the light weight limit. It surely would be like taking candy from a sick infant for him to outpoint boxers of the type of Rivers, Cross, Anderson and other youngsters who are clamoring for a crack at Ritchie and the title.

It is reported that Sam Langford is headed for home, after a long sojourn in the land of the kangaroo. The advice does not state whether he is bringing Jim Barry and Sam McVey with him. Sam will find a different sort of a game awaiting in this country. His ancient enemy, Joe Jeannette, is already preparing to give the "tar baby" a warm reception. Joe has a bone to pick with his colored brother. Two years ago the men were matched to box twenty rounds in California. They had met a dozen times in limited round bouts in the east with honors fairly even. Finally the longer bout was arranged. Sam, however, suddenly decided to go to Australia, where the game looked softer, and Jeannette was left in the lurch. The rules prohibiting contests between whites and blacks which had been adopted in the leading boxing centers have interfered greatly with Joe's money earning capacity, and he will gladly welcome Langford's return. The flour in the barrel is getting low, and the supply of pork chops need replenishing.

And between you and me, reader, a Langford-Jeannette bout will come pretty close to deciding the heavy weight championship of the world. Johnson appears to be out of the running entirely, and there is no "white hope" in sight who looks equal to the task of giving Langford and Jeannette a battle for the title.

Ad Volgaast can make good his threat to retire from the game if beaten by Tommy Murphy. The ex-champion light weight is not within many pounds of his best form. There is no longer any doubt that the operation for appendicitis sapped a great deal of his vitality. Ad has gone back a long way and last Saturday night he was still on the tologran for he failed to show the strength and recuperative powers that distinguished his efforts in the March match with Murphy.

If Volgaast is the wise little fellow I think will quit the game right away. It seems cruel to have to say so, but Ad is a "has been," like a lot more of us. A shame, too, that a boxer of 25 has to throw up the sponge at a time when he should be at his very best. But we can't let the "dope" carve us up and hope to "be there." The surgeons claim the appendix is a useless piece of machinery, but that sort of talk smacks of the "bull." Ad's case serves to answer the time worn question, "Can a boxer lose his appendix and retain his vitality?" Answer, "No."

Murphy deserves credit for his victory. He is one of the veterans of the ring, having started back in 1902. But I would not advise his friends to entice too much over Tommy's chances to win the championship. I think Willie Ritchie, Joe Rivers and the other youthful aspirants carry heavier guns than this old timer. Youth will be served you know, and the kids still carry their appendixes with them.

The headquarters for the convention was the Congress hotel. All business meetings were in the Florentine room, and concerts in the gold room. The visiting delegates were guests of two large Chicago clubs, the "Amateur Musical Society" and the "Lake View Musical society," which served each day an elegant luncheon at the auditorium hotel for all the visitors. The next biennial will be held at Los Angeles in 1915. Mrs. Constance Smith, formerly of this city took an active part in the convention.

GOLF RULES OF HUNDRED YEARS AGO WERE SIMPLE

Code At That Time Was Couched in Six Hundred Words While Eleven Thousand Are Used Now.

The Golfers Magazine in a recent issue prints the rules of the game which was effective in 1812. The most notable thing about the rules is that it takes only about 600 words to state them while the rules of today are expressed in 11,000 words. Here is the Golfers Magazine article as a whole:

"In view of the dissatisfaction with the present cumbersome rules of golf, it may be interesting to see what the simple code of one hundred years ago was. In 1812 it required only seventeen rules, stated in about six hundred words, to regulate the play. This 1812 code is the second issued by St. Andrews, the first having been put out in 1754 when the club was founded. The first code had only fifteen rules. In the first set of rules the player's ball could not be lifted anywhere unless it was actually touching the opponent's. The extreme shortness of the 1812 code is in marked contrast to the present rules, which, in addition to the definitions, special rules for stroke competitions, four-ball contests, etiquette, etc., require about eleven thousand words."

The following are the seventeen rules of a hundred years ago, the capitalization of that time being reproduced here:

I. The balls must not be teed nearer the hole than two club-lengths nor farther from it than four.

II. The ball farthest from the hole must be played first.

III. The ball struck from the tee must not be changed before the hole is played out, and if the parties are at a loss to know the one ball from the other, neither shall be lifted till both parties agree.

IV. Stones, bones, or any break-club within a club-length of the ball may be removed when the ball lies on grass, but nothing can be removed if it lie on sand or in a bunker, if, however, it stick fast in the ground it may be loosened.

V. If the ball lie in a rabbit-scraps the player shall not be at liberty to take it out, but must play it as from any common hazard, if, however, it lie in one of the borrows, he may lift it, drop it behind the hazard, and play with an iron without losing a stroke.

VI. If the ball is half covered or more with water, the player may take it out, tee it, and play from behind the hazard, losing a stroke.

VII. If the ball lie in the supererary hole, on the hole-across green, it may be dropped behind the hazard, and played with an iron without losing a stroke.

VIII. When the balls lie within six inches of one another, the ball nearest the hole must be lifted till the other is played, but on the putting green it shall not be lifted, although within six inches, unless it be directly between the other and the hole.

IX. Whatever happen to a ball by accident, must be reckoned a rub of the green, if, however, the players' ball strike his adversary or his caddy the adversary loses the hole. If it strike his own caddy, the player loses the hole. If the player strike his adversary's ball with his club, the player loses a hole.

X. If a ball is lost, the stroke goes for nothing, the player returns to the spot whence the ball was struck, tees it, and loses a stroke. If, in striking, the club breaks, it is nevertheless, to be accounted a stroke, if the player either strike the ground or pass the ball.

XI. In holding, you are not to place any mark to direct you to the hole, you are to play your ball fairly and honestly for the hole, and not on your adversary's ball not lying in your way to the hole.

XII. All loose impediments of whatever kind, may be removed from the putting green.

XIII. In all cases where a ball is to be dropped, the party dropping shall front the hole to which he is playing and drop the ball behind him, over his head.

XIV. When a ball is completely covered with fog, bent, whins and &c., so much thereof shall be set aside as that the player shall have a full view of his ball before he plays.

XV. When the balls touch each other, one of them must be lifted till the other is played.

XVI. Any disputes respecting the play shall be determined by the captain or senior member present, and if none of the members are present by the captain and his annual council for the time.

PERMANENT FERTILITY.

Main Problem Simple—Whole Subject Unnecessarily Complicated by Erroneous Theories—Four Fundamental Facts.

"Agriculture is, of all industrial pursuits, the richest in facts, and the poorest in comprehension. Facts are like grains of sand which are moved by the wind, but principles are these same grains cemented into rocks."

It is more than 50 years since Liebig wrote those words and Illinois realizing their truth has been assembling the facts the world affords and is cementing them into concrete form to serve as a foundation upon which to build systems of permanent agriculture.

The main problem of permanent fertility is simple. It consists in making sure that every essential element of plant food is continually provided to meet the needs of maximum crops; and, of course any elements which are not so provided by nature must be provided by man. The whole subject has been greatly and unnecessarily complicated, not only by erroneous theories commonly held by farmers and sometimes advocated by falsely so-called scientists holding official positions, such as the theory that crop rotation will maintain fertility of the soil, and also by the greed and ruinous policy of the commercial fertilizer interests, in urging and often persuading farmers to use small amounts of high priced so-called "complete" fertilizers which add to the soil only a fraction of the plant food actually required by the crops removed with the inevitable result that the land itself is steadily impoverished.

The Illinois system makes use of abundant quantities of all essentials, but at low cost and thus within reasonable reach. Those materials which are naturally contained in the soil in inexhaustible amount are liberated from the soil and thus made available for crop production; those contained in the air are likewise to be drawn upon as needed; while those materials which must be purchased are bought and applied in liberal quantities but in low priced forms and then made available on the farm by economic natural methods.

Four Fundamental Facts.
Nearly 150 years ago Senebier of Switzerland found that the carbon of plants is derived from the carbon dioxide of the air, and it is more than a century since DeSaussure of France first gave to the world a correct and almost complete statement concerning the essential mineral food of plants. Later, Laws and Gilbert of England established the fact that for most plants the soil must furnish the nitrogen as well as the mineral elements; and more than a quarter of a century has passed since Hellriegel of Germany, discovered that bacteria living in symbiotic relationship with legume plants have power to gather nitrogen from the inexhaustible atmospheric supply. These are four great fundamental facts upon which the science of plant growth and permanent fertility must be based, and the sooner they become as common knowledge as is arithmetic and writing, the sooner will Illinois reap the blessings her agricultural college, her experiment fields and her farmers' institutes are sowing.—H. A. McKeane, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

John Murray and daughters Mary and Agnes and granddaughter Tessie Stue of Woodson were among the Saturday visitors in the city.

The Liquor Habit Is a Nerve Disease and Can Be Cured

Don't ABUSE or UPBRAID the man who drinks to excess! His own conscience does that daily, hourly. He is a SICK MAN. He has the alcoholic nerve cell disease. The time when he could help HIMSELF is long past. But YOU can HELP him! WE CAN CURE HIM!

What Is the Liquor Disease?

It is a condition where the nerve cells have become trained to need alcohol. And unless they are fed with alcohol they rebel and refuse to control the muscles and brain cells.

The "craving" for drink is not the disease. It is simply the symptom of the disease, just as a cough is a symptom and not, in itself, a disease.

When the disease is cured the craving and appetite for drink disappear, just as a cough disappears when the cause of the cough is removed.

The Keeley Remedies Cure

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley discovered first the real nature of the liquor disease, and next a remedy that would cure it.

The Keeley remedies are simply nerve tonics that remove the artificial alcohol appetite of the nerve cells and restore them to their healthy, normal condition.

When this is done the man has no longer any need or desire for drink.

In the last 32 years 400,000 men have been cured of the liquor disease by the Keeley method.

The effect of the Keeley remedies is to absolutely destroy the craving and appetite for drink. The man who takes the treatment is no longer called on to fight an appetite. Because the desire and necessity for alcohol are completely gone.

We also cure Opium, Morphine and other drug addictions. The drug is withdrawn gradually and there is no shock, collapse, prostration or sickness. Full particulars in plain, sealed envelope on request.

We manufacture and sell Home Remedies which cure the Tobacco Habit and many forms of nervous troubles.

We have a Chicago office, Suite 906 Rector Building, 79 W. Monroe Street, where arrangements may be made.

IN MEXICO CITY.

Mexico City, April 26.—When tourists again visit Mexico City they may be disappointed not to find on all sides evidence of the damage done by shot and shell during the ten days' fighting in February. Already masons, bricklayers and carpenters are obliterating the scars of that conflict and it will not be many weeks before the appearance of the capital's buildings, both public and private, is wholly normal.

Rarely have contractors here gained such quick results, and never, perhaps, has it been demonstrated so well how a little plaster and kalsomine will make a bombarded wall appear "as good as new." The capital today is a city of patches. Much of the damage done by shells was not apparent from the exterior, since in hundreds of instances the shells tore their way through the walls before exploding, leaving in sight outside only holes often not more than six inches in diameter. The explosion on the inside of the house resulted in greater destruction.

Due largely to the fact that most of the buildings are of some form of stone or cement, there were few fires. Perhaps nine houses out of ten had their walls under a coat of thick plaster easy for the bullets from rifles and machine guns to pierce, but a few buckets of plaster filled the holes and a dab of tinted kalsomine completed the restoration. The same method was used in filling the holes left by shells and but a little more work and material was necessary in repairing a large number of the bigger gaps made by repeated pounding of cannon.

In a few cases, however, it will be many weeks and probably months before the normal aspect of street is restored. There were a few buildings where the damage was so great that mere patching will not suffice. Although monuments of one kind and another and statues erected in honor of this and that hero are scattered throughout the city, few of these have been damaged. The most complete piece of destruction of this character was that of a clock tower erected in Bucareli street. That tower, said to be the work of a famous sculptor, was not to pieces. The government made no effort to repair it, but, removing the debris, built on the site a flower garden. Since seed instead of seed was used there already is a big circle of green and in this were planted flowers already in bloom. It presents an appearance of having been there for years.

Before the present provisional government was established it was evident to many students of Mexican affairs that President Huerta would have to confront another revolution, and within a few weeks it was demonstrated that his problem was larger than that of his predecessor, but in the first week of April there were few who would venture a forecast. Any guess at that time as to the turn of events might have been made but the one which appeared nearest was that the rebellion would grow steadily in power.

The government forces had made little real progress against the rebels in the north, but, to offset that, came reports of disaffection in the ranks of the Sonora rebels and of scarcity of funds both in that region and in Coahuila, where Venustiano Carranza, ex-governor, was directing the campaign. The turn most uncertain was in the south, where the government still was delaying its action against Zapata, who had checked negotiations for peace by holding prisoner Col. Pascual Orozco, father of General Orozco, who had gone there as an authorized peace commissioner. There was yet hope that Zapata might co-operate with the government, which, however, declared its intention of sending against him an enormous punitive column in case he did not yield.

One thing which did appear certain was that if the war in the north and south continued it would be of a character more savage than any yet conducted in Mexico. Heretofore both rebels and federalists had shown a disposition not to attack each other in cities, but the fighting in Barral and dozens of smaller towns seemed to indicate that hereafter neither side would be disposed to respect positions simply because non-combatants might be endangered. From the south came reports that Zapata had served definite notice on property owners that they must contribute periodically the amounts he demanded for the maintenance of his army or be prepared to suffer summary punishment. In an effort to force recruits into his service he sent out broadest circulars telling workmen on haciendas that if they continued at their tasks his men would cut off their ears, and that if they persisted in working after that he would have them shot. Already earless peons in south are not an uncommon sight.

General Gerónimo Trevino, aged comrade of General Porfirio Díaz, recently was fortunate in having what began as a most humiliating and unfortunate adventure, terminate in a manner calculated to delight the old soldier. He was arrested at Monterey by an army of fiercer who since has been recalled. He was not permitted to go to his home for a change of clothing, but was bundled into an ordinary day coach and started for the capital on charges of being implicated in the Carranza rebellion. Huerta was informed, and immediately he used all his efforts to better the old man's condition and assure him that he would be brought here as an honored guest. Huerta kept his word. Trevino was met at the station by a military band and accorded all honors due a general of division. Since then he was banqueted by all officialdom, including the president himself, and the highest medal granted for military service was publicly pinned upon his breast.

TO STUDY FOREIGN CREDIT SYSTEM

American Commission Sails for Europe to Study Question in Use in Foreign Countries.
New York, April 26.—When the steamship Saxonia sailed for Europe today it had on board about eighty members of the American Commission on Agricultural Co-operation bound for Europe to make a thorough and systematic study of the rural and agricultural conditions in the countries of Europe. The commission has a total membership of one hundred, but some of its members, who are United States senators or representatives in congress are detained by the exigencies of the extra session of congress and will not be able to join the other members of the commission until after the adjournment of congress.

Practically all the members of the commission and several prominent government officials arrived here two days ago and completed their arrangements for the trip which will occupy several months. Yesterday they attended a banquet given in their honor at which the secretary of agriculture and several other prominent government officials were also present. The plan of sending a commission of investigation to Europe originated at the meeting of the Southern Commercial congress which was held in April of last year at Nashville, Tenn. The plan was adopted at that gathering met with the hearty approval of the federal government and of the governments of the states of the union and in accordance with it each state appointed two delegates to the commission whose expenses are to be paid by their respective states. President Wilson appointed a commission of seven to represent the federal government, with Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida as chairman; the commission also included the delegates appointed by the secretary of state to attend the International Institute of Agriculture, which will open at Rome on May 7.

In accordance with the plan elaborated for the work of the commission, the scope of the investigation provided for an examination of the methods employed by progressive agricultural communities in Europe in production and marketing, and in financing of both these operations. In addition to the following subjects are to be investigated: The parts played, respectively, in the promotion of agriculture by the governments and by voluntary organizations of the agricultural classes; the application of the co-operative system to agricultural production, distribution and finance; the effect of co-operative organizations upon social conditions in rural communities; the relation of the cost of living to the business organization of the food producing classes.

It has long been recognized throughout the United States that the farmers of the country, who number about 12,000,000 and who annually add $3,000,000,000 to the national wealth are seriously handicapped by the lack of a financial credit system adequate to their needs. It is estimated that the farmers of the United States are employing about $6,000,000,000 of borrowed capital on which they annually have to pay $500,000,000 interest. Counting commissions and renewal charges, the rate averages 8 1/2 per cent, while the farmer in Germany and other European countries can obtain all the capital required by them at a rate of interest of from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 per cent. In Germany, as well as in other European countries, the "rural credit" system has been developed with excellent results and to great benefit to the agricultural classes and it is believed by the promoters of the commission that similarly beneficial results may be obtained by the inauguration of an adequate agricultural credit system in the United States. Canada also is greatly interested in the subject and every one of the Canadian provinces is represented in the commission by delegates. After reaching Rome the commission will be given a reception by the International Institute of Agriculture on May 10, and on the following day the members will be received by the king and queen of Italy at the Quirinal. The commission will remain in Italy eight days and during that time will visit Naples, Florence, Bologna and Milan. Thence it will proceed to Austria-Hungary, spending five days at Vienna and five at Budapest. The itinerary also includes ten days in Germany, with stops at Munich, Dresden, Berlin and Cologne, ten days in Denmark and Sweden; ten days in Belgium and Holland; eight days in France; eight days in England and Ireland; and five days in the principal Balkan states. It is expected that the commission will return to the United States on the steamship Cedric of the White Star line, leaving Queenstown July 18.

ATTENDED GREENFIELD CONCERT
Misses Ella and Florence Blackburn have returned from a few days visit with their cousin, Mrs. Ralph Ford of near Greenfield. While there they had the pleasure of hearing a concert given at the opera house by Blind Boone, the noted negro pianist. Boone has been blind from birth, but a thorough musical education added to unusual natural talent has made him famous as a player, and he, together with his assistants has toured almost the whole United States, appearing before large audiences who never fail to appreciate and applaud his remarkable efforts as a musician. His programs are usually varied by vocal selections by Boone and young ladies of his own nationality, for Boone himself has a pleasing voice with the true "darky" ring. At the close of his program, according to custom, Boone asked anyone in the audience to play any piece he choose, then Boone would play it from memory. One of the young men musicians of Greenfield responded with a very difficult selection which changed key three times, and to the amazement of the audience, Boone was able not only to play the selection, but told in what three keys it was written, explained the intervals, and commended the young man very highly for his ability as a musician.

SMALL BLAZE AT BRIDGE WORKS
The fire department was called to the plant of the Illinois Steel Bridge company, where a hole was burned in one of the gables of one of the main buildings. The firemen made good run to the plant and the flames were extinguished with a few buckets of water. It is thought that a spark set fire to a bird's nest in the gable.

MATT STARR POST FOR SNYDER
Members of Matt Starr post No. 378 at the regular meeting have by unanimous vote endorsed the candidacy of Col. John M. Snyder for the position of state commander of the order. The election is to be held at the meeting of the organization in the latter part of May in Alton.

INVESTORS SEE FURTHER DECLINE OF MARKET HOLDINGS

Lack of Investment Demand and Caution of Bears Makes Dull and Drooping Market.

New York, April 26.—Investors have had to see a further scaling down of the market appraisal of their holdings in the course of the week's stock market. Successive events seem to confirm the disinclination of capital to enter new commitments. With no investment demand, such as must form the substructure of any successful speculation for the advance there is no incentive to the bull side. Bear speculators also have a spirit of caution, since the action amount of stocks offering on the declines is small. The week opened with the bears in retreat on account of the postponement of the decision of the state railroad case indicated by the filing of a brief on behalf of the federal government.

With the bears intimidated and the bulls finding no encouragement, there was the dull and drooping market which might be expected. In the prevailing mood of speculative depression, more was heard of the slowing down of trade and the decreased offerings of commercial paper. There was no evidence of the increased supply of investment capital, which some observers argued should result from decreased requirements of trade.

What Rudyard Kipling Said About the Grand Canyon in Yellowstone National Park

"I looked into a gulf 1,700 feet deep, with eagles and fish hawks circling far below. And the sides of that gulf were one wild welter of color—crimson, emerald, cobalt, ochre, amber, honey splashed with port wine, snow white, vermilion, lemon and silver-gray in wide washes. The sides did not fall sheer, but were graven by time and water and air into monstrous heads of kings, dead chiefs—men and women of the old time. So far below that no sound of its strife could reach us, the Yellowstone river ran, a finger-wide strip of jade green."

"Evening crept through the pines that shadowed us, but the full glory of the day flamed in that Canyon as we went out very cautiously to a jutting piece of rock that overhung the deepest depths of all."

I want to send you an illustrated pamphlet on the Yellowstone Park. It contains a fine map in colors, showing all the points of interest, and describes the many wonders to be seen. And I would like to tell you just how to go there most comfortably. May I do so? Kindly call or write.

Surprising Results From the Use of

Newbro's Herpicide

The manufacturers make no claims of hair-growing qualities or curative value of HERPICIDE. But the accompanying letter from Mrs. C. K. Sharp of Luverne, Ala., which comes voluntarily and unsolicited, is a glowing tribute to wonderful power for good concealed in this well known scalp prophylactic.

READ MRS. SHARP'S LETTER

Luverne, Ala., Feb. 16, 1913.
I want to give my testimony on the wonderful results of using Herpicide. December 14th, 1911, we adopted a little girl from the Orphanage. Her head was almost entirely covered with what we term "scald head," one side being entirely bald. I used every remedy I ever read or heard of including physician's prescriptions but they availed nothing. At last in desperation I used Herpicide, because it isn't advertised for that, I began on Herpicide. The first few applications stopped the itching. After using two and a half bottles she was entirely cured.
I wish you could see her hair. If I had used any more Herpicide I don't know what we would have done with it as she already has hair enough for two. The bald places are well covered and it is peculiar that all the new hair is curly while the old hair is straight. The child, whose name is Elcurtis is now eight years old and calls herself the "Herpicide Girl."
MRS. C. K. SHARP.

Each day reveals marvelous and astonishing results achieved by the use of NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE. There are surprises in every bottle which may be experienced by the one who uses it carefully and intelligently. While the results are not always of such an astonishing nature as those experienced by Mrs. Sharp, they are invariably satisfying.
Herpicide eliminates all dandruff, stops itching of the scalp and prevents the hair from falling out. It gives the hair life, luster and luxuriance so intensely admired by everyone and which is so naturally associated with NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, the well known and Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer.

POWERS OF CITIES LIMITED BY PENDING PUBLIC UTILITY BILL

Provisions of the Rapp Bill Now Before Illinois Legislature as Re- lated to Local Utilities.

The following paragraphs relating to local utilities form a part of the utility bill now pending before the Illinois legislature and has the support of Governor Dunne. The provisions quoted make it plain that the measure is compulsory only for cities with a population over 25,000.
Sec. 81. (Powers of cities). Each city of over 25,000 inhabitants, as fixed by the last school census, shall have power and authority:

(1). To prescribe terms and conditions, subject to the provisions of existing law, upon which any public utility may be permitted to occupy the streets, highways or other public property within such municipality;

(2). To require of any public utility such additions and extensions to its physical plant within said municipality as shall be reasonable and necessary in the interest of the public, and to regulate the quality, adequacy and safety of any kind of product or service furnished or rendered by any public utility within said municipality;

(3). To determine just and reasonable rates or other charges and to prevent unjust and unreasonable discriminations in rates or other charges, and services within the territorial limits of such municipality by any public utility;

(4). To provide penalties for the violation of the provisions of any ordinance or resolution adopted under the authority herein conferred;

Provided, that such power and authority of any such city shall not extend to rates or other charges or services beyond the limits of the city; nor to any public utilities for the transportation of persons and property or the transmission of messages, other than to control such transportation and transmission between points in the same city.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to limit or restrict the powers granted to cities by this article, nor to extend the jurisdiction of the state public utilities commission over such terms and conditions, additions and extensions, quality and adequacy and safety of service, rates and other charges, or discriminations in rates and service of public utilities furnished within the territorial limits of cities of over 25,000 inhabitants, other than those incident to the services extending beyond the limits of the city, except as provided in this article; nor to require a public utility operating or proposing to operate, mainly or primarily within the limits of a city, to secure a certificate of convenience and necessity of the state public utilities commission before beginning the construction of any new plant, equipment or other property within such city; but in all other respects such public utilities shall be subject to the provisions of this act and to the jurisdiction of the state public utilities commission herein conferred.

Sec. 82. (Municipal Commissions). Any city of over 25,000 inhabitants may by ordinance provide for a committee or local commission or commissioner to make investigation into all facts and matters relating to any public utility franchise, additions and extensions, the quality, adequacy and safety of service, and the establishment of just and reasonable rates or other charges, or the prevention of discriminations in rates or other charges, and service of public utilities within the territorial limits of such city. After any such investigation the committee or local commission or commissioner shall report its or his findings and recommendations to the city council.

Sec. 83. (Complaints and Investigations).
On complaint of the city council by any public utility furnishing services, products or commodities within the limits of the city, or by any 25 consumers of the service, product or commodity of such public utility, or anything done, or omitted to be done in violation of this act or of any order or regulation made under the authority thereof, the city council or its authorized agent shall cause a statement of the complaint to be forwarded to the public utility complained of, which shall be called on to satisfy the complaint or to answer the same in writing within a reasonable time, to be specified by the city council or its authorized agent. If there shall appear to be reasonable ground for investigating such complaint, it shall be the duty of the city council to cause the complaint to be investigated, by its own agents or by application to the state public utilities commission, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 84. (Witnesses—Inspection of books, Accounts and Physical Property). In the exercise of its powers over public utilities within the city, the city council or any officer or employee authorized by ordinance or resolution, shall have authority to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses under oath or affirmation, and to inspect and require the production of the books, papers, accounts, documents and to enter and inspect the plant and equipment and other property of any such public utility.

The deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state may be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the courts of this state.

Even for service of subpoenas and for the attendance of witnesses shall be the same as in the circuit courts, and shall be paid by the city, if subpoenaed at the instance of the city, and by the utility if subpoenaed by the utility.

Any witness duly subpoenaed under this section, who shall refuse to appear, to produce books, papers, accounts, or documents, to make oath or affirmation or to testify, or any officer, agent or employee of a public utility under jurisdiction of the city who shall refuse to permit the inspection of the books, papers, accounts, documents or records, or the plant, equipment or other property of such public utility, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Any circuit court of this state, or any judge thereof either in term time or vacation, upon application of any city or its authorized agent, may in his discretion, compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books and papers, accounts and documents, and the giving of testimony before the council or any authorized agent, committee, commission or commissioner of the city, by an attachment for contempt, or otherwise, in the same manner as production of evidence may be compelled before said court.

Sec. 85. (City Ordinances Prima Facie Reasonable—Court Proceedings). Any ordinance of a city council passed after an investigation by the council or its authorized agent, establishing rates or other charges or regulations as to additions or extensions, or as to the quantity, quality or safety of service, product or commodity within the limits of the city for any public utility shall be prima facie reasonable; and no rates or other charges or regulations so established shall be restrained except by the circuit court of the county in which the city, or the greater part thereof, is located, after notice to the city and a hearing.

Proceedings to contest the lawfulness or reasonableness of such rates or other charges or regulations may be instituted in the circuit court of the county in which the city, or the greater part thereof, is located, on application made not more than thirty days after the passage of such ordinance. Appeals from the decision or judgment of the circuit court in such cases may be made directly to the supreme court by either party to the action within sixty days after service of a copy of the order or judgment of said circuit court. Such proceedings in any court shall have priority in hearing and determination over all other civil proceedings pending before such court, except proceedings brought under sections 67 and 68 of this act, and election contests.

Sec. 86. (Application by City to Public Utilities Commission). Any city may by order or resolution of the city council apply to the state public utilities commission for any information or data necessary or useful in the investigation, or conducting such investigation, the commission shall be vested with all the powers and such public utility shall be subject to all the duties, obligations and liabilties as in the case of public utilities subject to the jurisdiction of the commission.

Sec. 87. (Review by Commission on Agreement). Any public utility being dissatisfied with any ordinance, resolution or order of a city council or any officer or agent thereof, may, by agreement with the city, in lieu of proceedings under the act, apply for a final and conclusive review of the action of the city before the state public utilities commission.
Such application shall be made within the time for commencing proceedings in the courts, and on the grounds on which it is contested, and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the agreement on the part of the city to the review by the said commission. Upon such application it shall be the duty of the said commission to review the action of the city; and for the purposes of such review the commis-
to all the duties, obligations and liabilities as in the case of public utilities subject to the jurisdiction of the commission. On such review the commission shall make such determination as seems to it just and reasonable in view of all the facts in the case; and the decision and order of the commission in such cases shall be final and conclusive and not subject to review in any court whatever.

Sec. 88. (Surrender and Resumption of Municipal Powers). Any city may, by ordinance, adopted in accordance with the provisions of this article, surrender any of the powers herein conferred upon it over the service or products, or over rates or other charges of any public utility or utilities within the limits of said city. On such surrender of any of its powers by any city, such city shall lose to exercise any such power over said public utility service or product, or rates or other charges, until and unless such power has been resumed by said city as provided by this article; and the state public utilities commission shall be vested with all the jurisdiction, powers and duties as to such public utility service, product, rates or other charges, and such public utility shall be subject to all the duties, obligations and liabilities as in the case of other public utilities under the jurisdiction of said state commission.

Such ordinance shall be and remain in force, and the jurisdiction, powers and duties of the commission and the duties, obligations and liabilities of such public utility or utilities shall continue for a period of not less than three years, and thereafter until such time as an ordinance shall be adopted by said city in accordance with the provisions of this article, resuming its powers over such public utility or utilities. On the adoption of such resumption ordinance, the jurisdiction, powers and duties of the commission over such public utility service, product, or rates and other charges, and the duties, obligations and liabilities of such public utility or utilities resulting therefrom shall cease; and the city shall exercise the jurisdiction, powers and duties in regard to such utility or utilities, as if no ordinance to surrender its powers had been passed.

Sec. 89. (Initiative and Referendum).
Whenever any ordinance for the surrender or resumption of municipal powers over the service or products or over rates or other charges of public utilities has been passed by the city council, its operation shall be suspended for a period of thirty days; and if during said thirty days a petition signed by the electors of the city equal in number to at least ten per centum of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding election at which a mayor was elected, protesting against the passage of said ordinance, be filed with the city clerk, then such ordinance shall be submitted at a general or special election within ninety days after filing of said petition, and shall not go into effect or become opera-

Women Gamble For High Stakes.

Many women are gamblers for very high stakes. They stake their health and good looks upon everything working out all right when attacked by those ailments which their sex alone are called upon to suffer.

The only excuse can be ignorance of the dangerous consequences or an aversion to undergo medical examination. This may often be avoided by recourse to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a perfectly safe and harmless remedy compounded from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been curing American women from the worst forms of female ills.

AT A FRACTION OF THEIR REAL WORTH!

This is some accomplishment made by Mr. Olian, who now resides in Cleveland, Ohio. On account of the floods in Ohio, several Cleveland firms offered their wholesale stocks regardless of cost. These goods are now being unpacked and arranged. See Ad. in Tuesday's Journal for full par-

MANY OF THE LEADING ISSUES WERE FORCED DOWN TWO

Nearly a Score of New Low Records Were Made—Bear Covering in the Last Half Hour Brought About a Rally.

(By Associated Press)
New York, April 26.—Prices were again depressed sharply today on the stock exchange. The week's accumulation of depressing influences and the market's lack of support encouraged bear traders to renewed efforts and during the fore part of today's session selling was carried on with increased vigor. Many of the leading stocks were forced down two points or so, and among the specialties losses ran as high as 8 points. Nearly a score of new low records were made. Bear covering in the last half hour brought about a rally during which part of the day's losses were recovered. As was the case yesterday there was nothing in the day's developments to which the weakness could be assigned, and the decline seemed to be principally the result of a cropping of the markets buying power. Apparently no one wanted stocks, or would take them except at concessions.

An increase of almost $4,000,000 in loans was the conspicuous feature of the bank statement. No financing of the week and shifting of loans from inter-bank to the city institutions accounted largely for the increase. Although the cash gain of $4,000,000 was larger than had been predicted the result of the week's operations was a decrease of nearly $1,000,000 in excess of reserves.

POULTRY CULTURE.

Gain or Profit Not the Only Object—Pleasure a Chief Incentive—Value of Crop Next to That of Corn.

It is conservatively estimated that the gross income of the poultry industry of the United States is a billion dollars each year. The corn crop is estimated at 3,000,000,000 bushels and at an average price of 50 cents a bushel means an annual income of a billion and a half dollars. It costs 32 cents to produce a bushel of corn, leaving a profit of 18 cents per bushel, or a net profit for the whole crop of $540,000,000. The poultry crop stands next to that of corn.

Poultry statistics tell us that there are 21,000,000 head of poultry in Illinois. These statistics were secured when probably the small flocks reserved for breeding purposes were on the farms. They are incomplete because they tell us nothing of the thousands of head that are sold as chicks from the incubator, as broilers for the early markets, as roasters for the holiday seasons and as breeding stock for new beginners; they tell us nothing of the eggs shipped for hatching at fancy prices nor of the considerable income derived from the by-products of the industry.

Three Classes Represented.

Many persons find pleasure in rearing poultry. They view the industry from an aesthetic standpoint and it is the love of the beautiful that inspires their efforts; they are willing to devote much labor and time in order to attain their ideal. Many beautiful and useful varieties of domestic fowls are established by the skill and cunning of man through the application of certain known laws of heredity and by processes of interbreeding and through the influence of environment under his control. The standard of perfection recognizes 122 distinct breeds of poultry. Much skill and patience has been required to produce these. The pleasure of this pursuit has been the chief incentive. Others engage in poultry culture for their health; they desire some light physical exercise, accompanied with stimulating and elevating mental effort. Others are inspired by desire for gain; they emphasize the "utility" side of the problem.

The Greatest Problem.

The greatest problem before the farmer and fancier is how to combine the beautiful, the healthful and useful so as to attain the highest good. Evidently if there is profit in our poultry enterprise there will be greater pleasure in their pursuit. If the farmer can be shown that poultry culture is worth while from every viewpoint he will be willing not only to establish pure bred flocks, but give more care and thought to this phase of farm production.

A practical course in poultry culture that is being used by a number of colleges of agriculturists will begin running in these bulletins in the very near future; this course gets right down to the root of every problem to be solved and tells how to surmount all obstacles. File each bulletin carefully and finally you will have the complete course—H.A. McKee, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

TO CANVAS DISTRICTS.

Personal Work Will Be Done Toward Endowment For I. W. C.

Over one hundred ministers of the Illinois conference held a meeting in Decatur Friday, with Bishop McDowell to consider the emergency of the Woman's college. The college has $55,000 yet to raise to secure the $180,000 by June 4. The situation was carefully explained by the Bishop who showed the high standard of the school and the danger of failure. It was decided unanimously by the pastors that a special canvas should be made throughout the entire conference during the next five weeks. A committee of five was appointed in the following eight districts: Bloomington, Champaign, Danville, Decatur, Jacksonville, Mattoon, Quincy and Springfield. These committees will be actively at work at once to find 25 men or women in each district who will give not less than $125 each. This is practically following out the organization recently formed in Jacksonville. It is believed that the full amount will be raised by commencement time.

LONDON AFFAIRS.

By Associated Press.

London, April 26.—If all the English suffragettes had the charm of Miss Zelle Emerson, the American girl, who went to jail "for the cause," equal suffrage would soon triumph in England, in the opinion of the prison authorities at the Holloway jail, where Miss Emerson was confined last week at a public meeting. Even the doctors who were required to feed her forcibly express the highest admiration for her pluck and cheerfulness.

Miss Emerson's good nature and wit made her a favorite among the prison officials, and it is doubtful whether she received better treatment than many of her English sisters. One of the attaches of the American consulate who visited Miss Emerson at Holloway said that she was one of the most charming girls he had ever met and expressed the hope that the state department would require him to repeat the visit.

Mrs. R. H. Emerson, Miss Zelle's mother, is deeply distressed by a statement made by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst some time ago at a public meeting. Pankhurst, in the house of commons, had been made by a speech to a militant suffragette in the Holloway jail who had sought to give herself pneumonia by lying uncovered on a cot after sponging her body with warm water. Mrs. Pankhurst said that this suffragette was Miss Emerson. Mrs. Emerson and her friends consider that Mrs. Pankhurst displayed bad taste in making the incident public and the relations between them are said to have become rather strained.

One of the odd features of the situation is the change in feeling experienced by American mothers who go to the American embassy to ask aid in having their suffragette daughters released from jail. The mother usually arrives in London alone and unheralded, in a state of humiliation or mortification over her daughter's plight. Such a one stepped into the embassy recently, having arrived in London but an hour before. She implored the staff to use their efforts to conceal the news of her daughter's imprisonment. Were it made public, she said, weeping with shame, she could never again face her neighbors at home. The militant suffragettes took the mother in charge. They persuaded her that her daughter's imprisonment was a signal honor. Two days later, with head held high and eyes blazing, the mother strode to the embassy and demanded to know why the American people had not been told that her heroic daughter was suffering martyrdom in an English jail. On her second visit a band of militant suffragettes accompanied her.

Another American girl who has covered herself with suffragette glory—albeit not by serving a prison sentence—is Miss Lillian Troy of San Francisco. Miss Troy is a writer and a woman of means. She is petite and chic, and a firm advocate of woman suffrage, although she is not a member of the English suffrage organization. In the campaign for Miss Emerson's release from jail she took a leading part.

She achieved her greatest distinction, however, in the great dock strike. Her heart was moved with pity by the plight of the wretched children of the idle strikers. She gave one little urchin his dinner. Within a few minutes there were dozens of hungry mouths to be fed. Miss Troy began a systematic plan of feeding all hungry children of strikers. At first it looked as if the strike would last but a few days. As month after month dragged by, however, with the strike still on force, Miss Troy stuck to her self appointed task. When the strikers gave in, she had given their hungry youngsters 96,000 meals.

Miss Troy thus made herself the idol of the strikers. Thousands of them knew her and would fight for her at the drop of the hat. When the delegation of suffragettes went to the Holloway jail to serenade Miss Emerson, Miss Troy called on the strikers for a body guard. From the hundreds who responded, a suitable guard was selected. It accompanied the suffragettes to the jail and the usual display of rowdiness was changed to a program as orderly as a Wednesday night prayer meeting.

Although Mrs. Pankhurst went to jail—and was afterward released through a hunger strike—because of her assumption of responsibility for the burning of the house of the chancellor of the exchequer, she has not even now the slightest knowledge of the identity of the real perpetrators of the deed, according to members of the suffragettes' organization.

This, they assert, holds true in all the depredations committed by suffragettes. They are merely accepted as volunteers for "war service." No questions are asked; the volunteers are left to their own initiative. However, they generally work in pairs and unless they are caught in the act, not even members of their own organization know what deeds they are responsible for.

Whatever John Bull may think of it, attaches of the American embassy are praying that the suffragettes' warfare will soon end. American mothers seeking the embassy's services in freeing their imprisoned daughters harass and heckle them no less than the English suffragettes harass their own political leaders. Almost everyone at the embassy becomes depressed every time a strange woman enters the place.

Another question which will soon come up for settlements at the embassy concerns the clothing which Walter H. Page, the new ambassador, will wear on dress occasions. Whether to shine in gilt, braid and brass buttons or seek the spotlight even more by wearing conventional evening clothes at daylight functions—a problem that has given many a diplomat a headache—is to be settled by Mr. Page himself. He will have precedents for choosing either horn of the dilemma. The government allows him to use his discretion in the matter, but fashionable London is awaiting his verdict with unsparring eyes.
